
R.E.M. - You Are the Everything

Intro Am

Sometimes^G I feel like I can't even sing^D
I'm very scared for this^G world
I'm very scared for me^D
Eviscerate your^G memory: Here's a scene
You're in the back^D seat laying down
The^G windows wrap around you
The^D sound of the travel and the engine

C
All you hear is time stand still in^G travel^C
You feel such peace and absolute^G
The stillness still that doesn't end^C
But slowly drifts^G into sleep
The stars are the^D greatest thing you've ever seen
And they're there for you
For you alone you are the everything^G

G
I think about this world a lot and I cry^D
And I've seen the films and the eyes^D
But I'm in this kitchen^G
Everything is beautiful^D
And she is so beautiful^G
She is so young and old^D

I look at her and I^C see the beauty
Of the light^G of music
The voice is talking somewhere in the^G house^C
Late spring and you're drifting off to sleep^C
With your teeth^D in your mouth
You are here with me
You are here with me
You have been here and^{Am} you are everything
